

ADRES Doctoral Conference 2020

CALL FOR PAPER

February 3-4, 2020
Lyon (France)

We are pleased to announce that the 2020 Annual Doctoral Conference of the Association for the Development of Research in Economics and Statistics (ADRES) is organized in Lyon by GATE Lyon-St Etienne.

The conference aims at stimulating exchanges between young economists, such as PhD students and post-doctoral researchers, and experienced researchers to discuss scientific contributions and get in touch for future academic positions. The conference will include three plenary sessions with invited keynote speakers and about 50 contributed papers by PhD/post- doctoral students.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Claire Adida, University of California San Diego
- Rabah Amir, University of Iowa
- Alain Trannoy, Aix-Marseille School of Economics and EHESS

SUBMISSIONS

The conference is intended for Economics, Econometrics or Finance PhD candidates or young post-doctoral researchers applying for a position in France/Europe this year.

Senior researchers/potential recruiters are welcome to attend. We will provide some facilities to encourage meetings between recruiters and applicants. Submissions are welcome in all areas of Economics, Econometrics and Finance.

JOB MARKET

Space will be made available in the university building to hold job-market interviews during the conference. Universities and other hiring institutions can post job-market announcements on the conference website, and we will provide them with access to candidates' CVs.
