

CALL FOR PAPERS

organizes the Conference of the French Economic Association

"Behavioral Economics and Experimental Economics"

We would like to invite researchers to present their theoretical or empirical work on behavioral economics and experimental economics during this three-day conference. We will consider any submission in the field of preferences and individual decision-making (neuro-economics, emotions, attitude towards risk, ...); collective decision-making and pro/anti social behavior (social preferences, donations, negotiation, ...); behavioral finance, markets and organizations (incentives; organizational design,...); games and rationality (cognition, learning, ...).

Tutorials in experimental economics will be organized on May 23 and contributed papers will be presented and discussed on May 24-25.

Keynote speakers:

The conference will include keynote speeches by Aldo RUSTICHINI (University of Minnesota) and
Robert SLONIM (Case Western Reserve University)

Deadline for the submission of abstracts: January 15, 2007

Organizers:

Stéphane Robin, Jean-Louis Rullière, Marie-Claire Villeval
